

Intrepid Academy at Hale Student Application

Intrepid Academy at Hale (IAH) is a full-semester experience. By submitting this application you commit to attending school at the IAH campus in Westwood, MA starting in September of 2018 and ending in January of 2019. The school calendar will follow that of the Boston Public Schools, however the school day will be longer.

Boston Public Schools faculty will deliver the curriculum and you will receive credits that you would have earned had you attended any of the Boston Public Schools. Transportation to and from the Hale will be provided, but students who avail of this service must be at the Forest Hills MBTA station by 8 AM each day.

This application may be submitted by email to jhowland@halereservation.org or printed and returned to Hale, 80 Carby Street, Westwood, MA 02090, Attn: Jerry Howland.

4. Essay

In 1932, Hale's founder wrote that "[no one] should be encouraged to work and strive for anything not in itself worth working for." If afforded an opportunity to attend Intrepid Academy, what will you work and strive for, and why is it worth your effort? Please limit your response to a page. You may write your response here or submit it as a separate document.

5. Acknowledgement

By submitting this application I understand that I will attend the September 2018-January 2019 semester as part of Intrepid Academy at Hale. I understand that the school will incorporate daily outdoor activities and require some physical activity that will be tailored to each student's ability.
